Dear Valued Taylor Rental Customer :

I want to take this opportunity to introduce myself to you. I have recently joined the Taylor Rental/ Party Plus team, with stores in Orange, Branford and Monroe.

As the Director of Sales and Event Planning, it is my desire to bring you timely news about Taylor Rental including new products and services. We are also planning several events in our showrooms in the coming year.

We have recently acquired many new china patterns, glassware, tents and lighting styles, in addition to many auxiliary products for all of your event needs.

While we have always had excellent customer service, we are now offering a personal consultant department to help you with your event from soup to nuts! We can supply an in-house event planner to guide you through your needs and manage all of the details necessary to make your event extraordinary.

I would love the opportunity to speak with you personally, and share with you all of our latest additions and new services.

Please let me know if you would like to make an appointment for me to visit you and share all of that is new with Taylor Rental/Party Plus.

Included in this mailing is our new brochure with a few ideas of what is possible!

Best regards,

Marc Deaton
